Nuxeo Content Services is Here to Help

Legacy ECM systems are being replaced by the modern Content Services Platform (CSP) that understands the way organizations need to create, use and share content in the digital age—both internally and externally.

Nuxeo delivers a modern enterprise Content Services Platform that enables organizations to fully utilize their information.

One Platform— Endless Possibilities

No matter what type of content you have, Nuxeo's Content Services Platform will help you realize its full value.

Information Management Challenges

75%

of organizations believe that getting access to information locked in legacy systems is VITAL

76%

of organizations have trouble finding information in a timely way

79%

of organizations are unable to connect information from different systems

Is your organization struggling with these issues?

Nuxeo provides the industry's most advanced Content Services Platform (CSP) to help organizations unlock the hidden value of their content —wherever it resides —through modern, AI-infused content-driven applications.

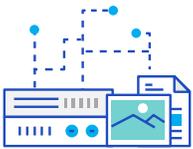

Scalable

Scales to meet the needs of a modern business. BILLIONS of items, of any type, stored in any system or repository

Personalized

Drag and drop creation of personalized interfaces make it easy and intuitive for users to quickly access the content they need, in a way that they're used to

Connected

Connects to multiple content and data systems throughout the business. LOB apps, other ECM systems and on-premise and cloud based fileshares

Cloud-Native

Built for the cloud. Fully leveraging cloud-based storage, databases, elastic scalability, and web-based services in an easily configurable manner

Flexible

Management of any file type—from traditional documents, reports, scanned images and spreadsheets, to modern file types such as images, audio and video formats

AI-Powered

Architected to take full advantage AI-powered classification, recognition and prediction capabilities via the cloud to automate manual processes and increase overall productivity
